A NARROW ESCAPE.-An accident which nearly resulted in the drowning of M'ss Jeanette Baker and Miss Lucile Whit, two young ladies of Washington, occurred off Fort Washington yesterday aftersoon. These young ladies with others took a trip down the river from Washington on the yest Gloriana, a cood-eized sailboat. Near Fort Washington the party planned to make a landing and the two young ladies were stepping from the yacht to a small rowboat when the accident occurred. Miss Baker had already been assisted into the smaller craft, but had not yet se ted harself, when Miss White was helped over the gunwale. About this time the swell from an excursion bust time the swell from an excursion back which was passing caused the boat to roll, and the young ladies, becoming frightened, grabbed for the side of the boat. This caused the little craft to caps ze and both were thrown into the water. Hugh Doyle and William Curran, who were among the party on the salibost, on hearing the splash in the water, burried to render assistance. As the young ladies arose to the surface the young ladies arose to the surface the young men managed to take hold of them and helped them aboard. They escaped lojury, but received a ducking.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE .- The strange A MYSTERIOUS CASE.—The Strange actions of two men, one of whom appeared to be under the influence of liquor, at racted the attention of Jesse Middleton and James Galloway, Saturday afternoon, in the vicinity of the stope arches at Four-Mile Rur. The one who appeared to be under the in-fluence of liquor accosted Mr. Middle-ton, and said he had been robbed. His watch chair, which was hanging loose, was evidence that his watch was missing. Later, the men were seen near the roadway about balf a mile from the archer, and the drunken man was lying in the bushes, the other bending over him. Mr. Middleth and his companion went to the place and found evidences of a struggle in the grass and bushes, and near the spot where the drunken man had been lying was a torn coat and a bank book. The book had been issued by the Biggs National Bank, and showed a credit of $80). The coat was badly torn as though some one had made an examination of the pockets and lining by tearing them open. The coat and book are in the possession of Mr. Galloway.

MEETING OF NAVY YARD EMPLOYEES The Alexandria employes of the Wash ington navy yard held a meeting yes-terday afternoon in the rooms of the Business Men's League for the purpose of taking action relative to the death of Commonwealth Attorney Leonard Marbury, who died several days ego. The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. M. Birrell, and Mr. H. F. Charles was elected secretary. The following were elected secretary. The following were appointed to constitute a committee to draft suitable resolutions in respect to the memory of the deceased: Messis. H. W. Charles, E. M. Birrell, W. H. Hutter, Semuel Wade, Watter McCaffery, and Charles H. Collins. Mr. Marbury was an earnest friend of Alexandrians employed in the navy yard, and by his exertions secured positions and extra pay for them. extra pay for them.

THROWN FROM THEIR WAGON.— While Mr. Joseph Lyles and his wife were returning to their home in Fair-fax county on Saturday evening after ax county or saturally evening after attending market in this city their wagon was overturned on the approach to Cameron run bridge and the oc-cupants thrown out. Neither was seriously injured, although they were more or less bru'sed. The arcident is said to have been caused by some boys who were under the bridge at the time, whose actions the horse was made to back the wagon off the embankment, overturning it. Mr. Pulman, living near by, patched up the harness which had been damaged and helped Mr. and Mrs. Lyles to their home.

THE NEW TORPEDOES. - An improv-THE NEW TORPEDOES.—As improved torpedo has been introduced among the younger generation. The principle is the same as that used by Orsini in manufacturing the bomb he threw at Nopoleon III. The device consists of a representation of a "yellow kid's hard," which is attached to a string. A head" which is attached to a string. A cap is placed in the mouth of the image, after which it is allowed to fall to the pavement and an explosion follows. The introduction of this modern torture has kept the recording angel busy here-abouts. Mayor Simpson came to the rescue this morning by giving orders to the police to stop the discharge of the torpedoes immediately.

ARM AMPIUTATED .- The announce mert of an accident to Leslie, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. Horace B. Ramey, by which his arm was broken, has been made in the Gazatte. It was supposed that the fracture would supposed that the fracture would prove no more serious than thousands of such cases. The accident occurred last Friday, when the little fellow was playing with companions in the back yard of his parents' residence, when he fell from a lattice work and had his right arm broken. His arm was set and there was every reason to suppose that rapid convalescence was to follow. About twenty-four bours later, however, it was discovered that the broken arm bad lost all sensation and it was found that gangrene extended from the wrist ome distance above the elbow. Am putation was the only course to pursue in order to save the boy's life. He was removed yesterday evening to the Alexandria Haspital where the arm was amputated. The child was resting easy
